The background of the slide is a teal or seafoam green color with a marbled, liquid-like texture. Thin, irregular veins of a shimmering gold or bronze color are scattered throughout the teal, creating a complex, organic pattern. The overall effect is reminiscent of marbled paper or a stone surface.

'Speak of the devil' – this means that the person you're just talking about actually appears at that moment.

"Hi Tom, speak of the devil, I was just telling Sara about your new car."

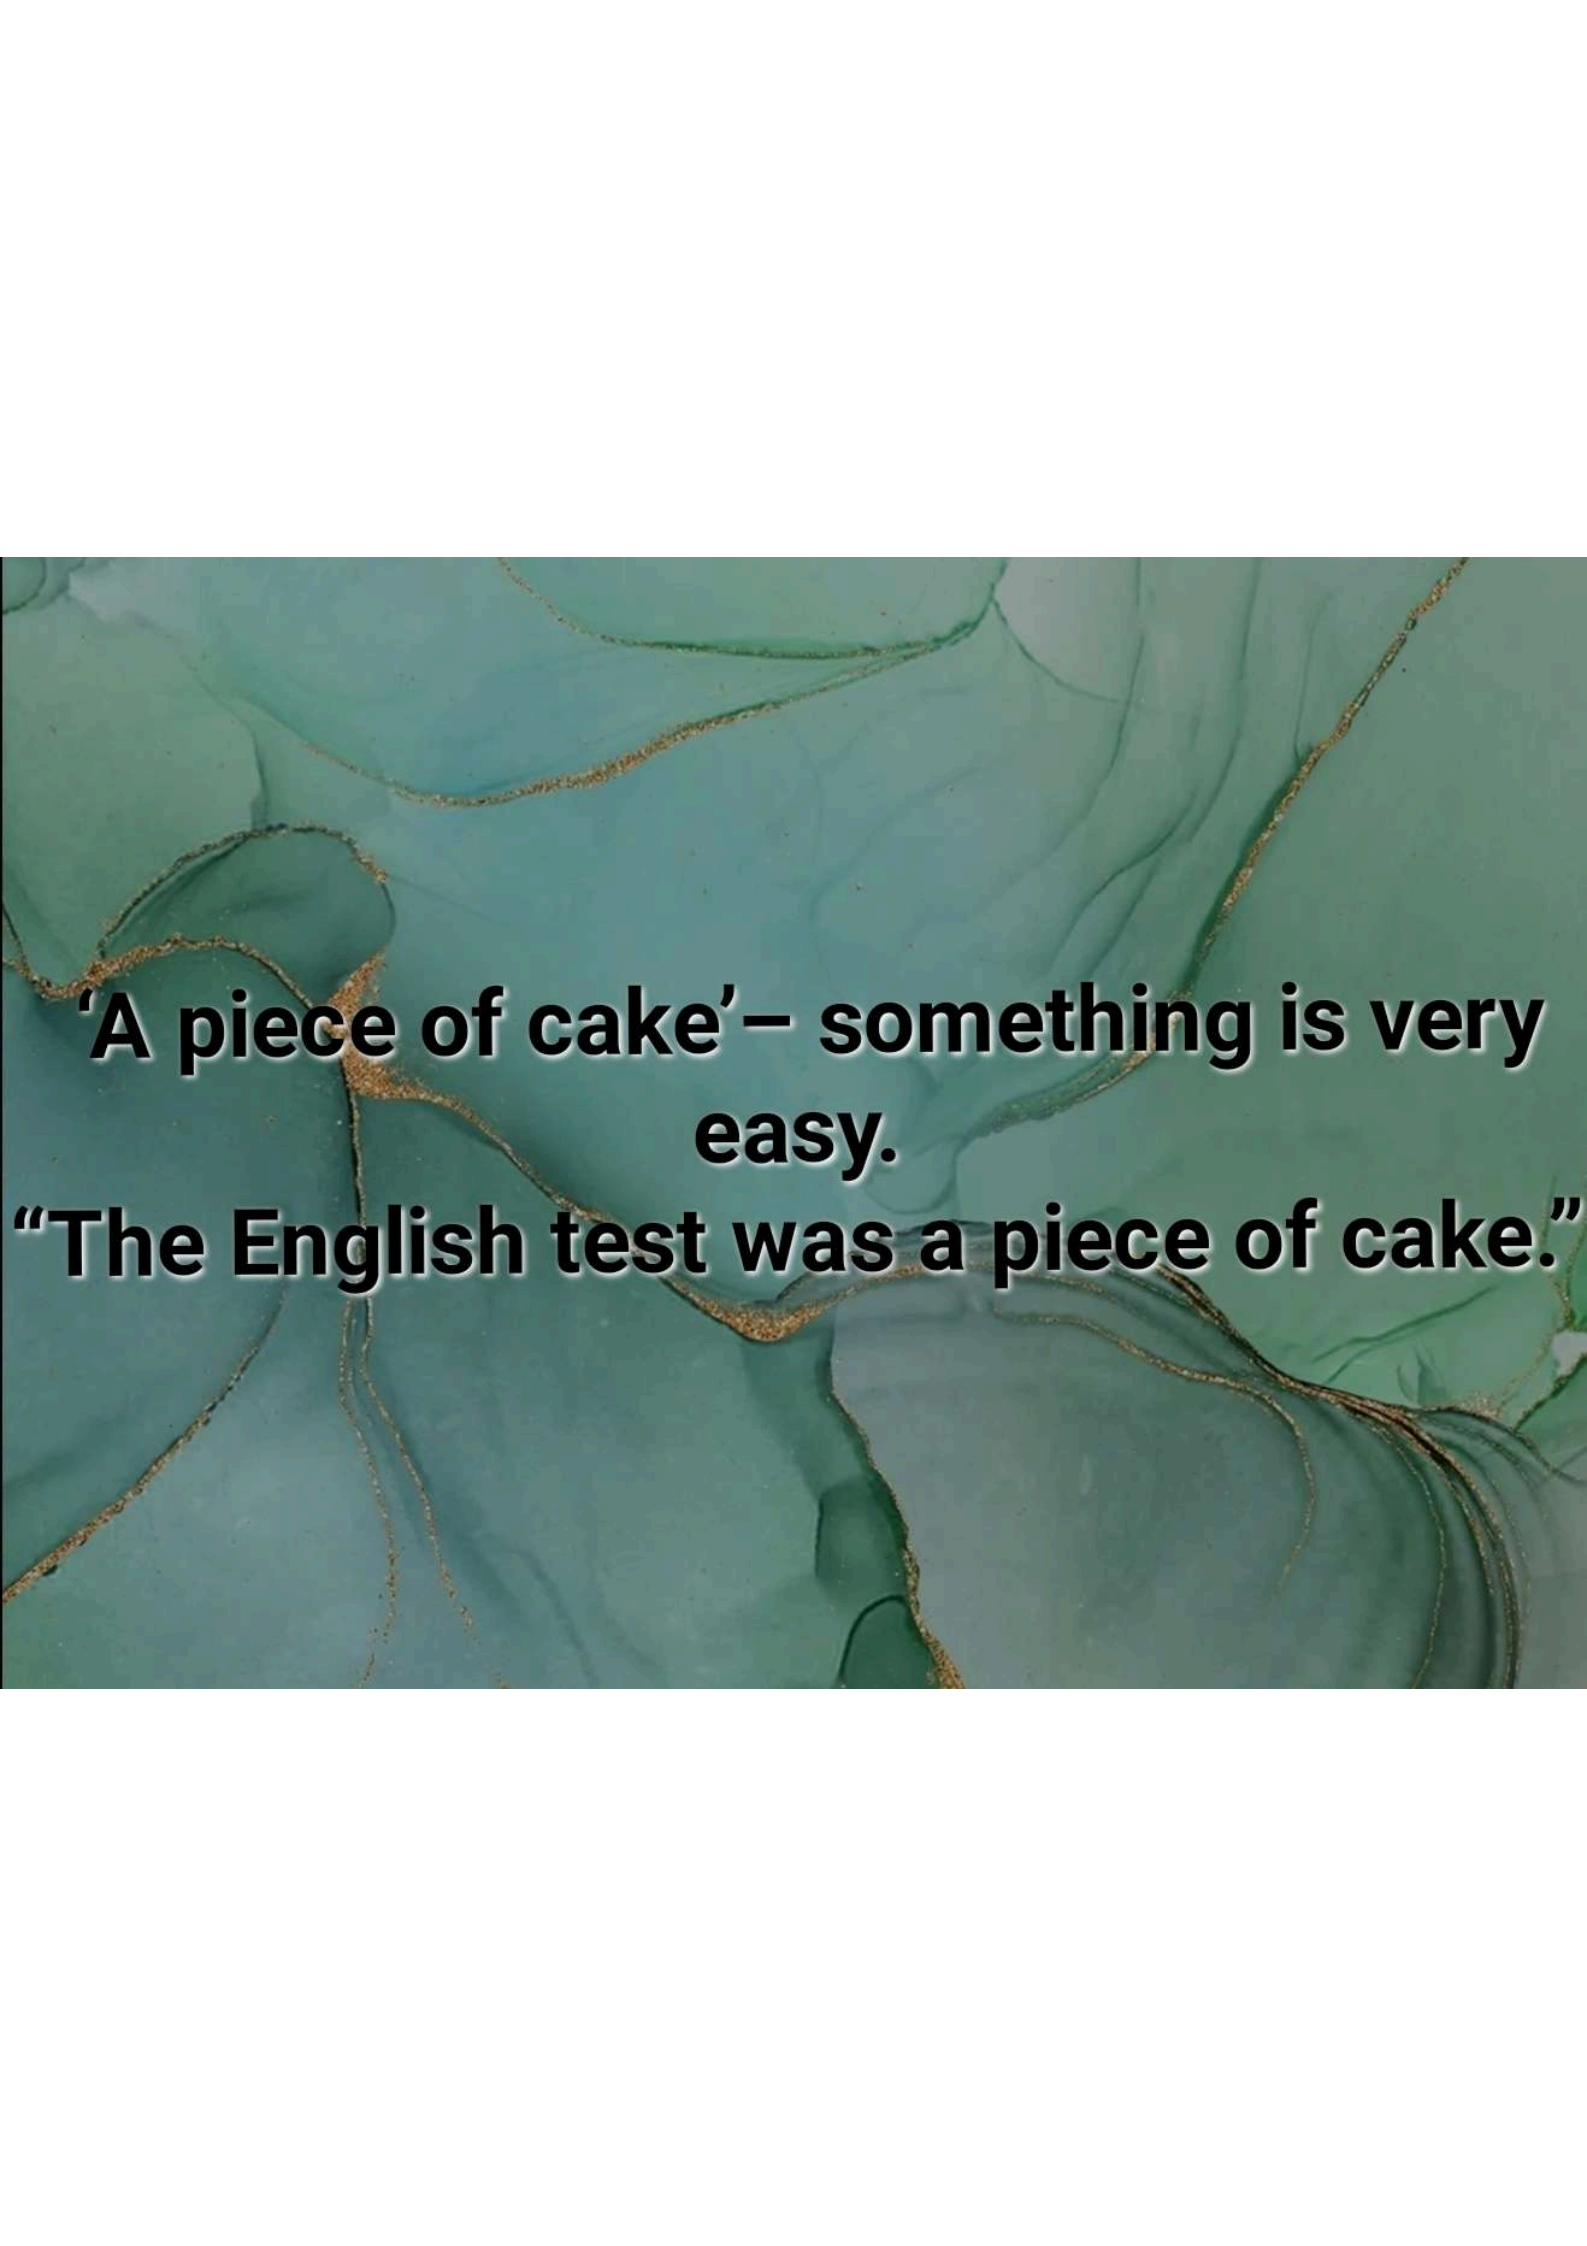

See eye to eye' – this means agreeing with someone.
“They finally saw eye to eye on the business deal.”

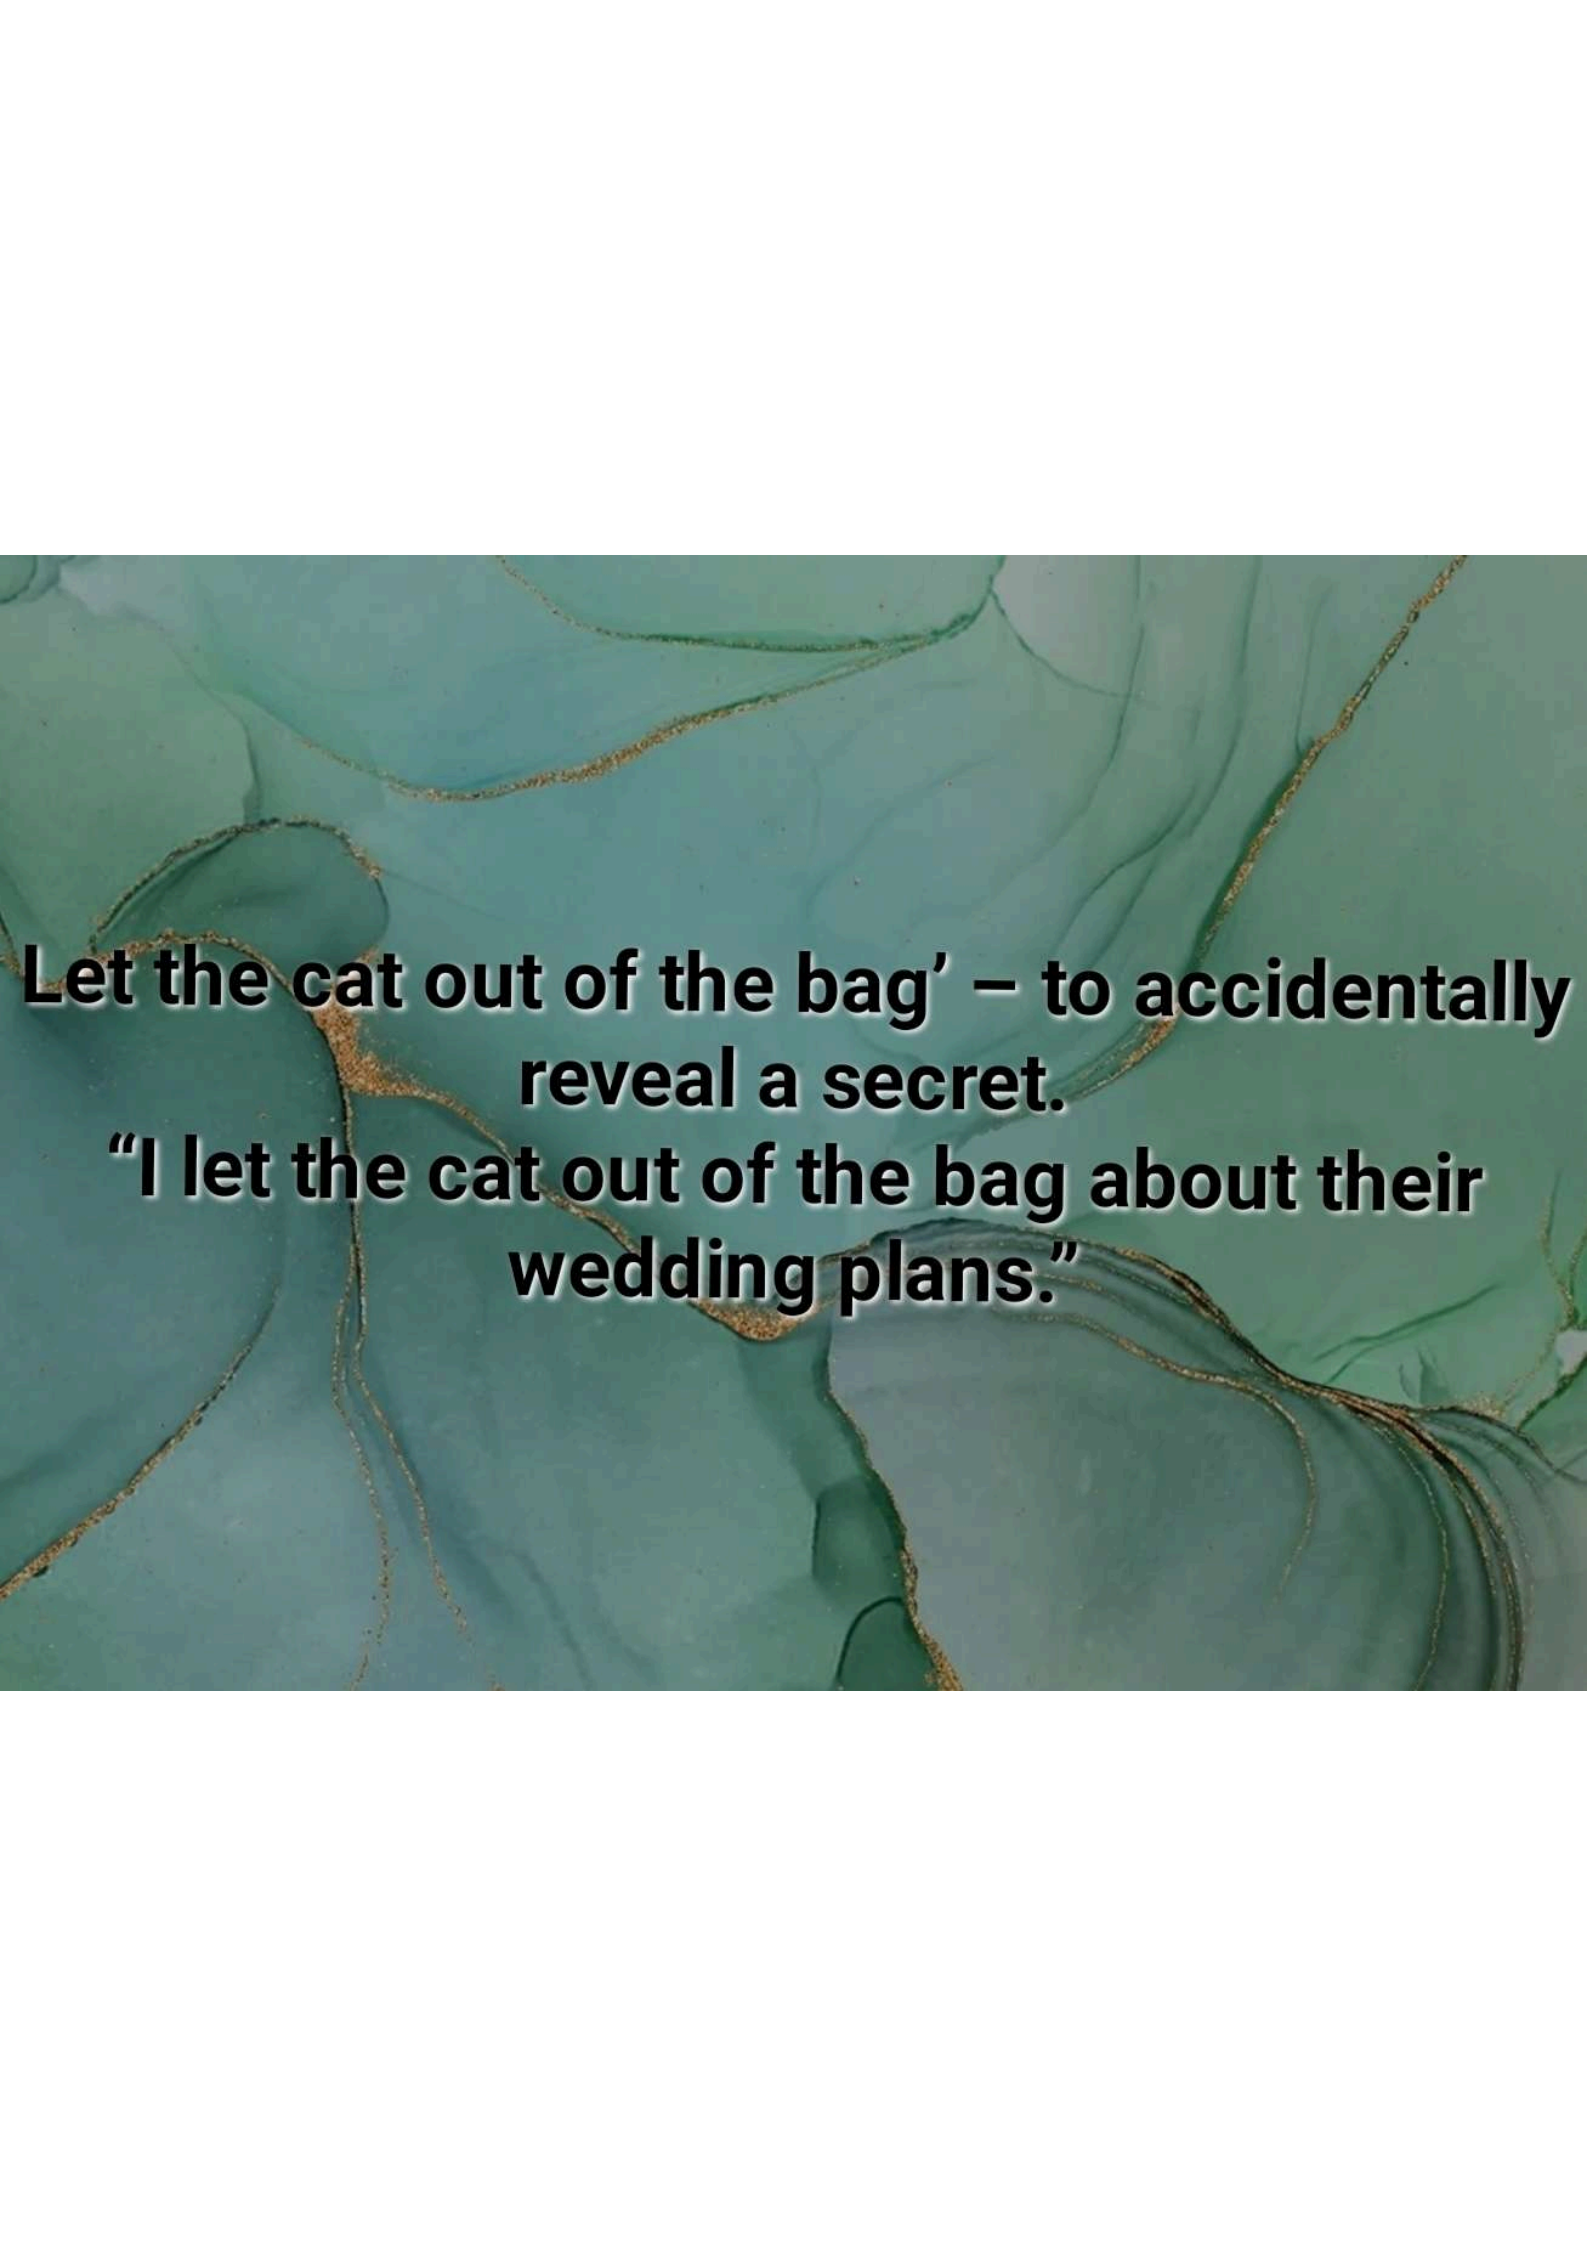

When pigs fly' – something that will never happen.

“When pigs fly she'll tidy up her room.”

The background of the slide is a green marbled paper with intricate, flowing patterns of gold and darker green. The marbling creates a complex, organic texture. The text is overlaid on this background.

'A piece of cake' – something is very easy.

“The English test was a piece of cake.”

Let the cat out of the bag' – to accidentally reveal a secret.

“I let the cat out of the bag about their wedding plans.”

To kill two birds with one stone' – to solve two problems at once.

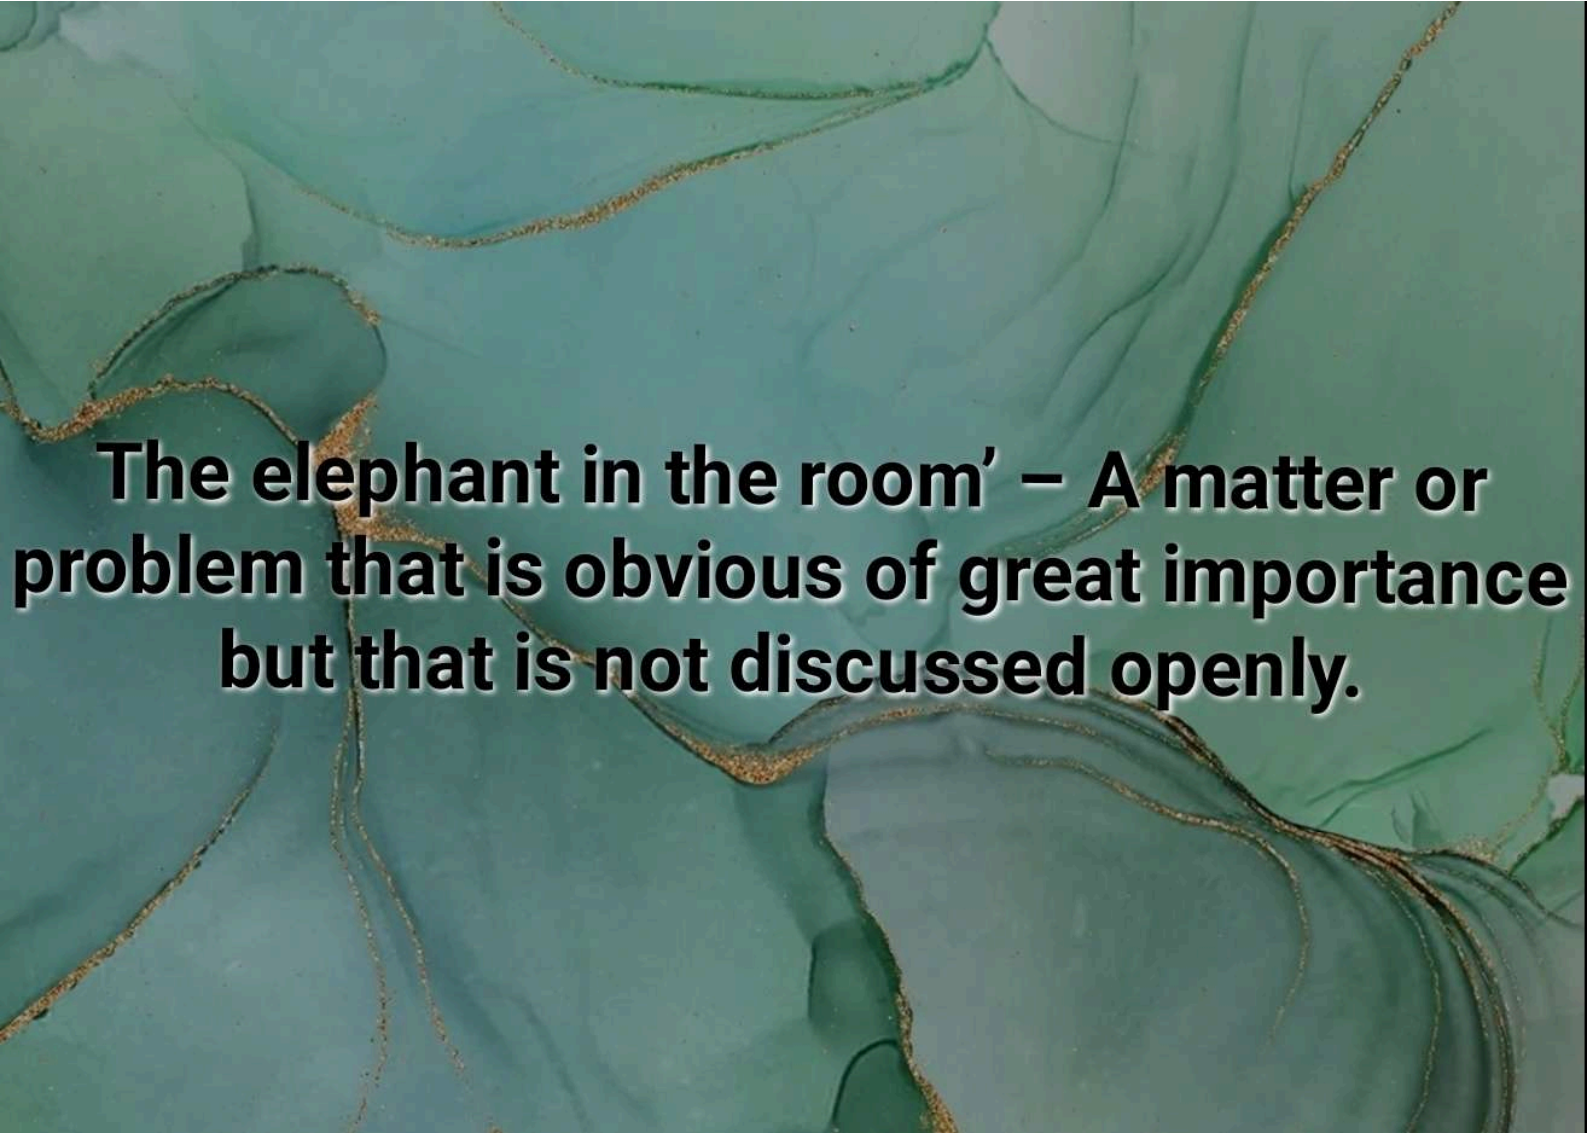

“By taking my dad on holiday, I killed two birds with one stone. I got to go away but also spend time with him.”

The background of the slide is a green marbled paper with intricate, swirling patterns of gold and darker green. The text is centered on this background.

Break a leg' – means 'good luck' (often said to actors before they go on stage).
"Break a leg Sam, I'm sure your performance will be great."

The background of the image is a marbled pattern in shades of green, ranging from light to dark. Thin, irregular veins of gold or bronze are scattered throughout the green, creating a textured, organic appearance. The overall effect is reminiscent of marbled paper or a natural stone surface.

No pain no gain' – You have to work hard for something you want.

The background of the slide is a teal or seafoam green color with a marbled, liquid-like texture. Thin, irregular veins of a shimmering gold or bronze color are scattered throughout the teal, creating a complex, organic pattern. The overall effect is reminiscent of marbled paper or a liquid resin surface.

The elephant in the room' – A matter or problem that is obvious of great importance but that is not discussed openly.